Need addresses, etc. for any county in NC - go to: <http://ncacc.org/countyinfo.htm> there's a state map, click on county then select department - i.e., - Register of Deeds - everything you need right there! Addresses, staff, hours of operation, costs for copies, etc.

Washington County Web Page

Steve Davenport (Dav1207@aol.com) advises: The Washington County web page now has marriage licenses of Washington County, a work in progress. Records cover all known marriages from 1851 to 1872 from two sources: Marriage Register and the Freedman's Register, a little-known source for colored marriages. Pages 1 - 28 contain entries from 1866 - 1868 which legally recognizes slave marriages from as much as 40 years prior. Pages 66 - 113 are a register of colored marriages from 1866 - 1872, a period during which, apparently, colored marriages were recorded here rather than in the regular register. Steve says the next step is to transcribe the register from 1872 - 1880 and says thanks to Charlie Barnes and all those who helped (are helping with) this project.

Surname: MARRINER - Looking for info on Worley (sometimes shown as Wesley) Marriner, born early 1800's and married Emma Snell in Washington County. One of their sons, William Collins Marriner, ran a store in Roper around the turn of the century but migrated to Virginia. Also seeking the "Marriner family cemetery" which is possibly near Mackey's Ferry, and:

Looking for the grave site of Penelope Jane "Neppie" Hassell, African-American, who died 18th Feb 1934 in Portsmouth, VA. She was buried in the vicinity of Creswell or Roper in a church cemetery on 20th Feb. Her mother was Jane Collins. She was a native of Creswell and was born 15th June 1885.

Joan Lazarus is researching Snells.

Member Information

Welcome new member Terrace Fagan Mitchell, Lawrenceville, GA. "Your Feb issue was especially interesting because as a resident of Plymouth, I remember Mr. Jerry Johnson and some of his family members.

I am researching ancestors of my great grandparents, Alexander and Sarah Howcutt Fagan. I found Alex and wife, Sarah in the 1880 Census with children: David (23 yrs), Martha (15 yrs), Sarah (8 yrs), Ben (7 yrs & my grandfather), George (5 yrs), Jennie (Geneva 8 mos) and Sarah's mother, Sarah Hocut (80 yrs). Rumor has it that Alex and Sarah were slaves.

Cymera Rosella Moore (my grandmother) b. 1880, daughter of John Daniel Moore and Margaret Lee, married Ben (Benjamin Franklin Fagan). To this union, ten children were born. Two of their children are residing in Plymouth, Theodosius (96 yrs) and Rossie Benjamin (86 yrs) Fagan.

My goal is to find who the parents of Alex and Sarah Fagan my paternal great grandparents and my maternal great grandparents, John Daniel and Margaret Lee Moore.

Thank you for any assistance you can provide. Terrace Fagan Mitchell. End
